

Georgia Robinette Joins Haynes Benefits PC

Haynes Benefits is pleased to announce the addition of Georgia Robinette as Counsel to our nationally recognized Employee Benefits and Human Resources law firm.

Georgia Robinette joined the firm after serving clients in both private practice and as in-house counsel for a Fortune 500 company.

Her practice is focused on employee benefits, including health care reform, health & welfare plans, HIPAA, data privacy & security and ERISA. She also provides employment law counseling and compliance advice. With experience in both employee benefits and human resources, she brings a holistic view and proactive problem-solving to your organization.

Georgia graduated from Arkansas State University with a B.S. in journalism and received her J.D. from the University of Memphis School of Law. She was a member of the Law Review, served as Notes Editor and received Dean's Awards for excellence in the study of Real Property and Remedies. Following law school, she served as a judicial law clerk for the Tennessee Court of Appeals and the Arkansas Supreme Court.

Georgia lives and works in Little Rock, Arkansas with her family. She is a board member for her local public radio station and a supporter of John 3:16 Ministries. She enjoys doing home projects, reading, spending time with her extended family and being active in her son's school, sports and scouting activities.
